4. Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares to make the nomination to appoint in the prescribed manner any person to become entitled to shares of the Company, in the event of his/ her death, during the minority.

5. Any person, who becomes a nominee by virtue of the provisions of Section 109-A of the Act, upon the production of such evidence, as may be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either: -

a. to be registered himself/ herself as holder of the shares; or

b. to make such transfer of the shares as the deceased shareholder could have made.

6. The Board shall, in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration, as it would have had, if the deceased shareholder had transferred the shares before his/ her death.

7. If the person being a nominee, so becoming entitled, elects to be registered as holder of the shares himself/ herself, he/she shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him/ her stating that he/she so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with the death certificate of the deceased shareholder.

8. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of the Act, relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that shareholder.

9. A person, being a nominee becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he/ she would be entitled if he/ she were the registered holder of the share except that he/ she shall not before being registered a member in respect of his/ her share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company:

Provided that the Board may at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself/ herself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

If call or installment not paid, notice to be given	Article 34: If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued due.
Form of notice	Article 35: The notice aforesaid shall- (a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and (b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the share in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
Forfeiture of shares on any default of payment	Article 36: If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
Disposal of forfeited shares	Article 37: (1) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.
Power to annul forfeiture	(2) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
Liability to pay money owing at the time of forfeiture	Article 38: (1) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys, which at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares. (2) The liability of such persons shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.
Declaration of forfeiture	Article 39: (1) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director, the Manager, the Secretary or the Treasurer of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

(2) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.

(3) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share.

(4) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.

Article 40:

Provisions regarding forfeiture to apply in the case of non-payment of sums payable at a fixed time

The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Conversion of shares into stock and vice versa

Subject to such directions Issued by the President, the Company may, by ordinary resolution:-

- (a) convert any paid-up shares into stock; and
- (b) reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

Article 42:

Transfer of stock subject to same regulations as transfer of shares

The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as and subject to the same regulations under which the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as, near there to as circumstances admit:

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

Article 43:

Rights and privileges of holders of stock

The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at, meetings of the Company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

Article 44:

Regulations applicable to paid up share to apply to stock

Such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stockholder" respectively.

Article 45:

Increase of Capital

Subject to such directions as may be issued by the President in this behalf, the company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.

Article 46:

Issue of new shares

Subject to such directions as may be issued by the President in this behalf, new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the general meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct and if no direction be given as the Directors shall determine.

Provided that no shares shall be issued carrying voting rights or rights in the Company as to dividend capital or otherwise which are disproportionate to the rights attaching to the holders of other shares.

Article 47:

Same as original capital

Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, or by these Articles, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and installments, transfer and transmission, lien, voting, surrender and otherwise.

Article 48:

Sub-division and consolidation of share

Subject to the approval of the President, the Company in general meeting may, from time to time, subdivide or consolidate its shares or any of them and exercise any of the other powers conferred by Section 94 of the Act and shall file with the Registrar such notice of exercise of any such powers as may be required by the Act.

Article 49:

GENERAL MEETINGS

Extra-ordinary General Meeting

Article 56:

All general meetings other than annual general meeting shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

Article 57:

Annual General Meeting

The Company shall in each year hold in addition to any other meetings a general meeting as its annual general meeting and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting and that of the next. The first Annual General Meeting of the Company will be held within eighteen months from the date of its incorporation and thereafter, subject to the provisions of Section 166 of the Act as amended, the Annual General Meeting of the Company shall be held within six months after the expiry of each financial year. It shall be held during business hours on a day that is not a public holiday. The notice calling the general meeting shall specify it as Annual General Meeting.

Article 58:

Convening of extra ordinary General Meeting

The Directors may, whenever they think fit and they shall, on the requisition of the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued capital on which all calls or other sums then due have been paid and as at that date carries the right of voting in the matter forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary meeting of the company, and in the case of such requisition the following provisions shall have effect:

(1) The requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionist and deposited at the Office and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists. In case of joint holders of shares, all such holders shall sign the requisition.

(2) If the Directors of the Company do not proceed within twenty-one days from the date of the requisition being so deposited to cause a meeting to be called for the consideration of these matters on a day not later than forty five days from the date of the deposit of the requisition the requisitionists or a majority of them in value may themselves convene the meeting but, any meeting so convened shall be held within three months from the date of deposit of the requisition.

(3) Any meeting convened under this Article by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the Directors. If, after a requisition has been received, it is not possible for a sufficient number of Directors to meet in time so as to form a quorum, any Director may convene an extra- ordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meeting may be convened by the Directors.

Article 59:

Notice of meeting

Subject to the provisions relating to special resolutions hereinafter contained, at least four clear days notice in writing specifying the place, day and hour of meeting, with a statement of the business to be transacted at the meeting shall be served on every member in the manner hereinafter provided, but with the consent in writing of all the members entitled to receive notice of same, any particular meeting may be convened by such shorter - notice and in such manner as those members may think fit.

Provided, however, that where any resolution is intended to be passed as a special resolution at any general meeting as required by Section 189 (2) of the Act not less than 21 days notice of such meeting specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution shall be served. Provided further that if all the members entitled to attend and vote at such meeting so agree, a resolution may be proposed and passed as a special resolution at a meeting of which less than 21 days notice has been given.

Article 60:

Notice how given to members

(1) A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him to his registered address, or if he has no registered address, to the address if any supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notice to him.

(2) Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting a letter containing the notice and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Article 61:

Registered shareholders to notify address

A holder of registered shares, who has no registered place of address, may from time to time notify in writing to the Company an address, which shall be deemed his registered place of address, within the meaning of the last preceding Article.

Article 62:

Notice to advertisement

If a member has no registered address and has not supplied to the Company an address for the giving of notices to him, a notice addressed to him and advertised in newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood of the Registered Office of the Company, shall be deemed to be duly given to him on the day on which the advertisement appears.

Article 63:

Notice to Joint holders

A notice may be given by the Company to the Joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder named first in the register in respect of the share.

Article 64:

Notice to legal representatives

A notice may be given by the Company to the person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to them by name or by the title or representatives of the deceased, or assignee of the insolvent or by any like description, at the address (if any) supplied for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled or (until) such an address has been so supplied by giving notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or insolvency had not occurred.

Article 65:

Notice of General Meeting

Notice of every general meeting shall be given in same manner hereinbefore, authorised to (a) every member or the Company except those members who, having no registered address have not supplied to the Company an address for the giving of notice to them, and also (b) every person entitled to share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member who, but for his death or insolvency would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting provided the Company had due notice.

Article 66:

Transferee bound by notice to transfer

Every person who by operation of law, transferor other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which previously to his name and address and title to the share being notified to and registered by the Company shall be duly given to the person from whom he derives title to such share.

Article 67:

Notice how signed

The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

Article 68:

Omission to give notice not to invalidate resolution

The accidental omission to give any such notice to or the non-receipt of any such notice by any members shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting.

Article 69:

Business of ordinary meeting

The business of an ordinary meeting shall be to receive and consider the profit and loss account, the balance sheet, and the report of the Directors and of the Auditors, to declare dividends and to transact any other business which under these Articles ought to be transacted at an ordinary meeting.

All other business transacted at an ordinary meeting and all business transacted at an extraordinary meeting, shall be deemed special.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

Article 70: *

Quorum

(1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.

(2) Save as herein otherwise provided, five members person shall be a quorum.

Article 71:

Chairman of general meeting

The Chairman of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the company.

Article 72: **

Election of Director in the absence of Chairman

If there is no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman, then the members present shall choose one of their number to be the Chairman of the meeting.

Article 73:

Proceedings in absence of quorum

If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present the meeting convened upon such requisition as aforesaid, shall be dissolved; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and such other time and place as the Board may by notice to the shareholders determine, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present those members who are present shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

Article 74:

Adjournment

(1) The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

Business at adjourned meeting.

(2) No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Amended vide Extra-Ordinary General Meeting held on 28.01.1992. The original sub-article is reproduced at page 56 to 62.*

 Adopted by Resolution dated 26.9.1974. The original Article is reproduced at page 56 - 62.*

Notice of adjourned meeting

(3) When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

(4) Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Article 75:

Decision in the first instance by show of hands.

(a) Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

Evidence of resolution where poll not demanded

(b) At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by a member present in person or proxy or by duly authorised representative, and unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the vote recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

Manner of taking poll and result thereof

(c) Subject to Sec. 179 of the Act, if a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting directs, and either at once, or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn.

Poll demanded to be taken at the meeting

(d) Subject to the provisions of Section 180 of the Act, any poll duly at the meeting demanded on the election of a Chairman, of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment.

Chairman to be the sole judge

(e) The Chairman of any meeting shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at such meeting. The Chairman present at the taking of a poll shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at such poll.

Member not personally present to vote on show of hands

(f) No member not personally present shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands.

Article 76:

Demand for poll not to prevent transaction of other business

Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the polls.

Right of the President to appoint any person as his representative

Article 77:

(1) The President, so long as he is shareholder of the Company, may from time to time, appoint one or more persons (who need not be a member or members of the Company) to represent him at all or any meetings of the Company.

(2) Only one of the persons appointed under sub-clause (1) of this Article who is personally present at the meeting shall be deemed to be a member entitled to vote and be present in person and shall be entitled to represent the President at all or any such meetings and to vote on his behalf whether on a show of hands or on a poll.

(3) The President may, from time to time, cancel any appointment made under sub-clause (1) of this Article and make fresh appointments.

(4) The production at the meeting of an order of the President evidenced as provided in the Constitution of India shall be accepted by the Company as sufficient evidence of any such appointment or cancellation as aforesaid.

(5) Any person appointed by the President under this Article may, if so authorised by such order, appoint a proxy, whether specially or generally.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

Article 78:

Votes

(a) On a show of hands, every member present in person shall have one vote; and

(b) On a poll, the voting rights of members shall be as laid down in Section 87 of the Act.

Article 79:

Voting by joint holders

In the case of joint-holder the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint-holders.

For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

Article 80:

Notice by person entitled to any shares by transmission.

Any person entitled under the transmission clause to any shares may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that seventy two hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which he proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the directors of his right to such shares, unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to such shares or his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

Voting in the case of members of unsound mind	Article 81: A member of unsound mind or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having Jurisdiction in lunacy may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
No member to vote unless calls are paid up	Article 82: No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meetings unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.
Objection to vote	Article 83: (1) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.
Chairman to judge validity	(2) Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
Appointment and qualification of proxy or attorney	Article 84: A member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting may appoint another person (whether a member or not) as his proxy to attend a meeting and vote on poll. No member shall appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. A proxy shall not be entitled to speak at a meeting or to vote except on poll. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and be signed by the appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing or if the appointer is a body corporate, be under its seal or be signed by an officer or an attorney duly authorised by it.
Deposit of instrument of appointment	The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time, appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
Form of Proxy	Article 85: An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in either of the forms in Schedule IX to the Act or a form as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Article 86:

Vote of proxy not invalid if notice of revocation not received

A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given.

Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.
